“The Dawning of a New Day” First Annual Emerging Artists Exhibition

Eligibility

Who is eligible to participate in “The Dawning of a New Day”?

Emerging visual artists of the African Diaspora; artists of all media will be considered.

What is an Emerging Artist?

An emerging artist is someone who has exhibited in 20 or less professional (this does not include university or school sponsored events) art exhibitions including group and solo efforts.

What is “Dawning of A New Day”?

Artists are encouraged to submit work that reflects their perception of or perspective on Black life in America and its future. For example, one might want to consider the fact that there is a black president-elect of the United States of America (this is a suggestion, all interpretations of the theme will be considered).

Where will the exhibition be held?

"Dawning of A New Day" will be held in the gallery district of Washington D.C. This is an open call for artists. There are no regional restrictions. However, if selected, artists will be held responsible for the delivery and pick-up of their work. More Black Art about More Black Ish...Art Fund will not assume responsibility for work after the duration of the exhibition.

Rules

Artists may submit up to three works:

- There is an entry fee of $15 for the first piece of work and $5 for each additional entry.
- Entry fee should be paid via money order or cashiers check. Credit Card will be accepted via PayPal on www.moblackart.org (please include your receipt with your application)
- all work must be submitted in digital form on CDs
- Images must be labeled with title, dimensions, and media.
- 2 copies of the CD must be submitted to jurors
- A self addressed stamped envelope should accompany every entry.

Entries omitting any of the above details will not be considered.

"Dawning of a New Day" will be a juried exhibition, and submission of an entry form does not guarantee acceptance into the exhibition.

All Selected artists will be notified via email by April 2nd 2009.

Once Selected artists will be required to fill out and return a More Black Art about More Black Ish Exhibition Contract. This must be received by April 9th 2009-exactly one week from the date of acceptance notification.

Contracts not returned by the listed date will be considered null and void.

20% of the profit of all work sold at "Dawning of a New Day" will be donated to the More Black Art about More Black Ish...Art Fund to further the fund's mission and facilitate future events.

Sculpture entries are subject to size requirements. Please contact More Black Art about More Black Ish...Art fund for details before submitting a sculpture entry.

Entry fees are non-refundable

Entry fees will be used to further the mission of More Black Art about More Black Ish...Art Fund as explained on the about us section of our website and facilitate the "Dawning of A New Day" Exhibition.
